

Gary ECK

Gary Eck is one of Australia's most popular & versatile stand-up comedians whose sharp wit has been entertaining Australian and international audiences for nearly two decades. He is also an accomplished writer, actor and director.

Gary co-wrote and co-directed Happy Feet Two with Academy Award winning director George Miller. He also voiced a number of characters in the film.

Gary has also co-starred and co-written the feature film You Can't Stop the Murder' (Miramax 2003) and starred in the film Boytown alongside Mick Molloy and Glenn Robins.

A graduate of Canberra University with a BA in Marketing and Advertising, Gary comedy career has taken him all around the world from Edinburgh to Paris to New York and London.

He has performed stand-up accompanied by a Live Orchestra, emceed the Myer Spring Summer Launch with Jennifer Hawkins and performed on numerous television shows including Rove, The Footy Show, Spicks and Specks and was weekly guest on Mick Molloy's The Nation on Channel Nine.

Gary won the world's largest short film competition, Tropfest, with his short film entitled The Money (2004). A collection of Gary's short films screened in a special one hour programme on the Comedy Channel entitled, Eck's Rated Shorts.

Gary recently released a stand-up comedy CD, Gary Eck Live! and has been nominated for an ARIA award for comedy album The Hollywood Motel.

Understandably, Gary is a much sought after in the corporate arena as a master of ceremonies, comedian and keynote speaker. His ability to tailor material to suite client's needs and ad lib with the audience make him extremely flexible for a variety of events. Gary is an ideal choice to compere your next conference, roadshow or to provide after dinner comedy entertainment.

Gary had the audience in the palm of his hand. Very professional, funny till it hurt and a fabulous result! I would be more than happy to have Gary on all my events.

Louise Schweiker, Ci Events

"Your performance really went down spectacularly and your work at making the day flow certainly added to the success."

Louise Cordaiy, Ve Commerce
General Manager Marketing

"Thank you SO MUCH Gary, you are brilliant! Hope we get to work with you in the not too distant future."

Victoria Fisher
Myer Spring Summer Launch

I just wanted to let you know that I am eternally grateful for the wonderful job you did for us last night. It was a complicated brief and run sheet and not only were you the consummate professional, you made me cry with laughter time and time again.

After all these years managing events its not often I honestly think a performer deserves their fee - but you Gary are a star.

With thanks,

Suzy Byrne ☐, Entrepreneurs' Organization
